HOC SIGNO FORTUNA.

BALTIMORE, MONDAY, July 9, 1821.

One Thousand Dollars

Will be awarded as a premium to the first drawn No. in the GRAND STATE LOTTERY of Maryland, which is to commence drawing in this city, on the 15th of next month. The Cash for this prize, as well as for all others in this popular lottery, can be had at COHEN'S OFFICE, the moment it is drawn.

The continued demand from every part of the union, for Tickets and Shares in the Grand State Lottery, evinces the popularity of the scheme. In order to accommodate our country friends, who prefer to invest in shares instead of whole tickets, we shall continue to furnish them at the same rate as the whole tickets, as heretofore. We wish them also to recollect the great advantage attendant on early purchases, the first drawn three thousand Blanks, being entitled to Ten dollars each, and that the drawing will commence on the 15th of NEXT MONTH.

Anniversary of Independence.

This auspicious day was celebrated in this city, with the usual demonstrations of joy, and the accustomed festivities—at an early hour the military were dismissed, and then mingled in the general mass of citizens assembled at Washington Square, where the Declaration of Independence was read, accompanied with appropriate remarks, by E. L. FINLEY, Esq. and an Oration delivered by JNO. P. KENNEDY, Esq.

The Directors of the Bank of the United States, have declared a dividend of one and a half per cent. for the last six months, ending the 1st inst.

A person calling himself Alexander Chapman, was arrested at Chambersburg, Penn. and committed to Bedford jail for attempting to pass counterfeit bank notes. There were found concealed in his saddle and clothing, $471 of counterfeit paper, consisting principally of 50 dollar notes of the Bank of Philadelphia, letter E.—fives of the Bank of Pennsylvania, letter C (these notes are printed on an imitation of Murray, Fairman & Co's steel die plates) and two's on the Branch Bank at Easton, Md.

The Maryland Gazette, and Political Intelligencer, published at Annapolis, is said to be the oldest paper in the United States. It was established upwards of 79 years ago, and has been continued by the father and son ever since.

The number of convicts who were sent from Great Britain to New South Wales, from the 1st of January 1817, to the 1st of January, 1821, was 8570 males, and 496 females; of these 2800 males, and 80 females were transported for life; 1449 males and 140 females for 14 years; and 4321 males and 276 females for seven years.

Very late from England.

By the ship CORTES arrived at New York in the short passage of 26 days from Liverpool, London dates to the 8th of June, and Liverpool to the 9th are received.

The war between the Turks and Greeks, the disturbances in Spain, and the preparations for the approaching coronation of the King of England, appear to be the most prominent events contained in the papers.

Prince Ypsilanti, has addressed a letter, dated from his head quarters at Romau, March 17, to the Metropolitan, the Bishops and the Boyars, in which he states, that the Greeks have taken up arms to establish their national rights, they will regard the inhabitants of Moldavia and Wallachia as brethren, and declares their persons and property shall be inviolably respected.

Numerous detachments of Greeks continually arrive in Moldavia and Wallachia, and augment the force under the command of Prince Ypsilanti. This chief is abundantly provided with money, and pays his soldiers largely. At Bucharest he was joined by 1000 young Greeks, relatives of wealthy families, principally from Vienna, Audo and Odessa. Many European regiments have deserted their corps and entered the Greek service.

From the preparations which are now making, it appears probable that the coronation of the King of England, will take place about the middle of July. It is rumored, that on the day which shall be fixed for this splendid ceremony, the Prince Regent's Dock will be opened for the reception of shipping. This is one of the most magnificent structures of the kind in the world; and its original projection as well as the beautiful manner in which it is finished, reflect great credit on all who have been concerned in the undertaking.

The King's Coronation Robes.—These robes, together with the robes of the Royal Dukes, are finished, and are to be seen by those who can obtain an order from persons high in office at Carlton Palace. The train is made of crimson velvet, seven yards in length, and will be borne by seven persons. It is embroidered with a deep gold border, interspersed with roses of gold, and here and there is a plume of feathers in silver, which give it a pleasing relief. It is lined throughout with ermine, which was purchased for the occasion in France, and originally intended to adorn the coronation robes of Louis XVIII.—The under dress and dramatic robes are entirely covered with silver and gold, and are extremely massive and costly; and indeed, it is doubted if his majesty's health and strength will enable him to sustain, for the requisite length of time the ceremony will necessarily occupy, the enormous weight of the whole dress.

The Queen.—A question had been put in the House of Commons on the night of the 21st May, whether the Queen would be invited to the Coronation. The Marquis of Londonderry (late lord Castlereagh) explicitly declared that Ministers did not intend to advise his Majesty to sanction any act of the Crown to authorise the coronation of her Majesty, and without such act (it being indubitably a prerogative of the Monarch to grant or withhold it as he may deem fit) her Majesty cannot participate in the ceremony. Mr. Brougham protested against the validity of this doctrine.

SECRETARY'S OFFICE, Baltimore, July 2d, 1821.

The Managers of the Grand STATE LOTTERY of Maryland, in presenting their acknowledgments to the public, for the very distinguished patronage they have received from every part of the Union, have the pleasure to announce that in consequence of the rapid sales of Tickets, and the encreasing demand, the drawing will take place in the City of Baltimore, on Wednesday the 15th of next month (August) and will be completed in Thirty drawings only, under the superintendence of the Commissioners appointed by the GOVERNOR AND COUNCIL OF STATE.

This splendid Lottery has met the most decided approbation—the brilliancy of the Prizes—the arrangement of the Stationary Premiums—the great chance of acquiring an independence, and the little risk attendant on investments, all combined, have given the Scheme that patronage which the Managers had anticipated.—The capital Prizes are.

40,000 Dlls.	5,000 Dlls.
20,000 Dlls.	5,000 Dlls.
10,000 Dlls.	20 of 1,000, &c.

Besides an unusual number of other denominations, for which we refer to the full scheme published on the next page. Not two Blanks to a Prize! The whole of the prizes are payable in Gold or Silver, or in Notes of the BANK OF THE UNITED STATES. To the early adventurer this Scheme offers superior advantages as the first drawn Three Thousand Blanks are entitled to Ten Dollars each! Those not yet supplied should make application without delay, particularly while Tickets and Shares are at the following low rates, viz:—

Whole Tickets,	.. $10 00
Halves,	.. 5 00
Quarters,	.. 2 50
Eighths,	.. 1 25

ORDERS from any part of the Union, enclosing the Cash, post paid, will meet the same prompt and punctual attention as if on personal application, addressed to

J. I. COHEN, Jr.

Sec'y to the Managers—Baltimore.

State of the Wheels.

During the drawing of the Grand State Lottery of Maryland, (which is to take place on the 15th of next month) a regular account of the state of the wheel will be published in the "Register" so that previous to renewing small prizes, or making new investments, persons residing at a distance may have the same advantages of knowing the exact state of the Lottery from time to time, as those who reside in the City of Baltimore, where the drawing will be conducted.

To Distant Adventurers.

For the satisfaction of adventurers in every part of the Union, the Managers have determined to publish in this paper, the official lists of each drawing of the Grand State Lottery, and which will include the numbers both of the Blanks and the Prizes. This will be a two-fold advantage to the distant adventurer, because the holder of a small prize will be thereby informed of it, and will enable him to send it on immediately for renewal; while on the other hand, the adventurer whose number may draw a blank will also be notified of it, and can if he thinks proper make a new investment, should the state of the wheel at that time justify it.

Foreign Bank Notes will be received at par in payment for Tickets or Shares, at COHEN'S OFFICES, provided the rate of discount is not more than five per cent. which can be ascertained by examining the Exchange-list in a preceding column.
